Hey Jasmeet,

I hope all is well. This is a bit of a random question: but I am shifting away from flying to SLC every week, to fully remote. I remember BFC use to rent an office from Stout. Any idea if you guys have capacity for me to rent an office?

Nick

Nick,

Hope all is well and you are all settled into the new role / company.

Let me know if you want to connect in coming weeks over coffee or lunch. Alternatively, we can connect virtually over zoom...
